

Careers in Everyday Industries: Journal articles and conference papers

Current as at 28.9.23

Contact Erica Smith e.smith@federation.edu.au if you have difficulty accessing any papers.

Journal articles

Smith, E., Smith, A., Callan, V., Robinson, R. Snell, D. (2023). Careers in everyday industries: Findings from research fieldwork in retail and hospitality. Research Today, Issue 31, August, pp 16-19.

Smith, E., Robinson, R. & Snell, D. (2021). Employment and training in everyday industries: What public data tell us. Research Today, Issue 28, October, pp 13-16.

Conference presentations

Snell, D., Robinson, R. & Smith, E. (2023). Why don't young people want to pursue careers in retail and hospitality? 32nd National VET Research Conference 'No Frills', RMIT, Melbourne, 19-21 July.

Smith, E. and Smith, A. (2023). Retail work: Ubiquitous, undervalued and uncertificated? The context and purpose of VET: Journal of VET Conference, Oxford, 19-21 July.

Smith, E. & Smith, A. (2023). Retail: The industry that VET forgot. VET and challenging times: AVETRA 25th conference, Citadines Hotel, Melbourne, 26-28 April.

Smith, E. & Smith, A. (2022). Career practitioners' views of careers in retail and hospitality. 15th Annual OctoberVET Ballarat, SMB Campus, Ballarat, November 23rd.

Smith, E., Robinson, R. & Snell, D. (2021) The curious case of jobs and training in retail and hospitality. 14th Annual OctoberVET Ballarat, on-line, Nov 25th.