Navigation

The website is split into 5 main sections, which you can see in the left-hand panel:

- Home
- Alerts
- Countries
- Traveller Advice
- Disease Information

Home

- The Homepage displays the most recent travel, health and security alerts by country, shown on a World map, plus widgets containing company-specific information.

Alerts

- This section includes a back catalogue of alerts.
- Alerts are divided into Travel, Health, Security and News categories, and can be filtered accordingly.
- You can also sort the list by region, Country or date range.

The screenshot shows the "Alerts Archive" page. It features a filter bar with options for Travel, Health, Security, and News, and a date range selector. Below the filter bar, there are dropdown menus for "Regions" and "Countries", and a "Search" button. The main content area displays a list of alerts, each with a country flag, the country name, a brief description of the alert, and the date. The alerts are sorted by date, with the most recent at the top.
