

Internationalisation of the Curriculum

Showcase: 5th November 2015

Looking for fresh ideas to give your classes a more global outlook?
Want to know what our international students think about our university?

Come along to the IoC Showcase and find out what great activities your FedUni colleagues are engaged in to promote internationalisation and global citizenship. Also, come and learn about our international students' learning experiences on campus.

Showcase details:

- Date: Thursday 5th November, 2015
- Time: 10.30am – 12.30pm
- Locations: C001 (Mt Helen campus) & 1W207 (Gippsland campus)
- Lunch will be provided at 12.30pm

The showcase will include:

Rob Davis & Carolyn Johnstone (FEA)	"Global learning opportunities for staff & students in Education"
Grant Meredith (& Shu Ying Liang) (FoST)	"Influencing more than just grades by teaching on foreign soil".
Nicholas Prince (Nursing)	"Including personal experiences to globalise curricula"
Melania Pantelich (Fed College) and international student panel	"Internationalising teaching & learning: how to be more inclusive of international students' learning experiences"
