

CONTRACT CHEATING

WHAT IS CONTRACT CHEATING?

Submitting as your own work an assessment which has been purchased from an outside source.

- Using a service or a person to complete your work for you
- Asking your family member, friends, tutor or someone on a website to complete your work.

If evidence of any of these forms of academic misconduct is identified once your assessment has been submitted, a formal investigation process will commence. Always seek support or advice before submitting your assessment(s).

"I paid my brother to do my assignment and got in lots of trouble. I'll never do it again."

Past student experience

Contract Cheating penalties may include:*

0%

Receiving zero for an assignment

Failing a unit

Being excluded from FED

*Other penalties may apply.

MORE INFORMATION

Student Academic Leaders (SALs) via the ASK Desk (online and on campus)

federation.edu.au/ask

Make an appointment with a Learning Skills Advisor (LSA) through Edge

federation.edu.au/edge

Visit our online referencing Tool called FedCite

federation.edu.au/fedcite

Complete the compulsory Academic Integrity Module

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY: HONESTY . TRUST . FAIRNESS . RESPECT . RESPONSIBILITY