

Graduate Speech – Lim Chin Yih

Federation Business School

3.30pm, Wednesday 6 May, 2015

Chancellor, Vice-Chancellor, Distinguished Guests, Fellow Graduates, University staff and students.

I'm privileged to be given this opportunity as the Graduate Speaker, to speak to you today on behalf of all graduates attending today's graduation ceremony.

My name is Lim Chin Yih and I am delighted to be sharing this ceremony not just with my fellow Malaysian graduates, but with the many other students graduating here today.

Students at this ceremony will have graduated from a range of programs including the Bachelor degrees, Graduate certificates, Graduate diplomas, as well as the Masters programs.

And while many studied at the Mount Helen campus, others studied at many other locations in Melbourne, Adelaide, Sydney Malaysia, Singapore, Hong Kong and also from many other countries across the world

On behalf of all the graduates, we thank all the educators and staff of the university, and also our families and friends who have played a vital role in supporting us in this journey.

My heartiest congratulations to all graduates.

With this, as a graduate of Federation University Australia, we will stride forward into the world, equipped with our new knowledge, to make the world a better place, inspiring and helping others, and continuing our journey of education.

I end my speech with a quote from Bernier Siegel "God wants us to know that life is a series of beginnings, not endings. Just as graduations are not terminations, but commencements."

Thank you.
